Samuel Jackson
R. 5529

Dear Sir:

The data contained herein were obtained from the papers on file in the Revolutionary War claim for pension, R. 5529, based upon the military service of Samuel Jackson in that war.

Samuel Jackson was born in Prince William County, Virginia, in 1758, day, month, and the names of his parents are not shown.

While a resident of Dumfries, Prince William County, Virginia, Samuel Jackson enlisted in September 1775, served as private in Captain Outhbert Harrison's Company, Colonel William Grayson's Virginia Regiment and in Captain Jonathan Furguson's Virginia Company and was in the battle at Long Bridge, Norfolk; length of service ten months. He enlisted in July 1776 for during the war, in Captain Thomas West's Company in the Third Virginia Regiment and was attached to Captain Philip Lee's Company, Colonel Weedon's Third Virginia Regiment and marched to Alexandria thence to Baltimore, then started for Philadelphia, on the way there was taken sick, unable to march, was put in a baggage wagon which upset and he was injured and disabled for service, returned home on parole and was unfit for further military duty during the war.

In 1798 he moved from Virginia, to Mason County, Kentucky, in 1820 he moved to Floyd County, Indiana, and about September 1841 he moved from Indiana, to Morgan County, Illinois.

He was allowed pension on his application executed March 3, 1834, while a resident of Floyd County, Indiana.

He died March 12, 1844, in Morgan County, Illinois.

Soldier married in the spring of 1782 in Culpeper

County, Virginia, Vashti, who died September 28, 1846, in Morgan County, Illinois, aged eighty-three years.

Children of Samuel Jackson and his wife, Vashti, living in 1855 were: Lucy Stansberry, Nancy Daniels, Polly Weldon, Charles Jackson, Zepheniah Jackson, John Jackson and Kessiah Wright, aged fifty-three years and a resident of Morgan County, Illinois. In the same year her husband Reuben Wright was aged sixty-four years.

In 1855 one Benjamin F. Wright and one Mildred Wright made affidavit in Morgan County, Illinois, their ages or relationship to the family not stated. There are no further family data.

Very truly yours
