J. G. Rowland Capt'd Home

Dear Sir & Comrade

We hear that Segwick Ho Gold an inmate of the Home, is very anxious to come Home for a while to attend to some business. I want to tell you he has no business to attend to, & could not if he had. & there is nobody here to take care of him. & we think best for him to stay there. he is childish & does not know what is best for him. you insist on his remaining there; for we cannot do anything with him here.

Yours in H. love
