Quincy, Ill., Jan. 6th 1906.

Mr. Charles Moore

Dear Sir:

Jacksonville, Ill.

You are hereby notified that your application for admission to the Soldiers and Sailors Home has been approved, subject, however, to Examination by the Home Surgeon.

If your coming is too long delayed, the place now ready for you might be occupied.

Transportation from Jacksonville to Quincy is enclosed.

If possible, bring a serviceable suit of clothing to wear in case you leave the Home, as the clothing issued to members belongs to the State and should be left here when the member goes away. A valise may be brought, but a large trunk is objectionable.

Try to arrange your coming so as to reach here on the morning or day train, and notify the conductor that you wish to stop at the Home.

Yours respectfully,

J. B. [Signature]

Superintendent.

Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' Home.
